

KINDNESS RALLY

LET'S MAKE TASMANIA THE KIND STATE

TO LIVE, LEARN, WORK AND GROW OLD

TASMANIAN
♥ WEEK ♥
HUMAN RIGHTS

When: Friday 7 December, 12–1.30 pm

Where: Assembly at St David's Park, to walk to Parliament Lawns

With: Speakers and Choir of High Hopes

Please note that this is an all-weather event.

Please join us. Let us make this the largest collaborative human rights event Hobart has experienced! Tasmanians can lead the way by practicing empathy and kindness in our thoughts, actions, policy and decision making.

Kindness is the heart of humanity.

There are so many who contribute daily to making Tasmania a kinder place to live; by working to combat

- homelessness
- gender based violence
- elder abuse and neglect
- child abuse and neglect
- illiteracy
- modern day slavery and exploitation
- discrimination and harassment
- off shore detention
