

Interpreter Training Scholarships 2021

Scholarship opportunity for Tasmanian interpreters and bi-cultural workers seeking NAATI Certification

The Tasmanian Government is offering funding to help local interpreters enrol in the Interpreter skills Online Training for NAATI Certification provided by RMIT University.

Priority Languages

Amharic, Arabic, Auslan, Bislama, Burmese, Cantonese (north only), Dari, Farsi, Hakha Chin and Chin dialects, Hazaragi, Japanese, Hindi, Nepali (north only) Mandarin (north only), Oromo, Punjabi, Russian, Samoan, Spanish, Tetum, Thai, Tigrinya, Tongan, Urdu, Vietnamese.

Application

Closing date for Expressions of Interest (EOI):
25 June 2021

The EOI form can be accessed from

<https://form.jotform.com/211357804328859>

COURSE DATES

10 weeks from
26 July - 15 October 2021

NAATI CPI Practice Test:

11 - 15 October 2021

COST

Course fee: $1,500
Scholarship value: $1,000
Recipient expense: $500

ENQUIRIES

ti.skillset@rmit.edu.au

Supported by

Interpreter skills Online Training for NAATI Certification

This course meets the training requirements set by NAATI (National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters) for anyone wishing to sit for an Interpreter test.

The course includes language specific tutorials which will provide feedback to individual students and offer an overview and preparation strategies for the NAATI Certified Provisional Interpreter test.

Pre-requisites

Applicants are required to meet English proficiency requirements before enrolment by undertaking a pre course language activity. This is necessary to ensure students have the required level of English to complete the course.

